who complained that the bank is not releasing the documents (i.e. power of attorney & Will) relating to his property at Malviya Nagar, Delhi even after full and final adjustment of the account. The said NPA account was settled by the Bank under its Recovery Policy and one of the terms of the settlement was that the securities held in the account were to be released only after full and final adjustment of the said account as well as other connected account of the borrowers/guarantors. Though the settlement amount was received in the NPA account of M/s Kunal Construction Co., yet the property of Mr. Satish Ohri Guarantor could not be released because as per terms of the settlement, the other connected NPA account in the name of Smt. Janak Kumari was not adjusted. Since the connected account of Smt. Janak Kumari has now been adjusted on 14.07.2006 after settlement with the bank, the documents pertaining to the property of Mr. Satish Ohri shall be released after completion of procedural process at DRT in due course.
